

Amendments to the Specification:

Applicant hereby submits both a clean and an amended substitute specification. The changes made to the specification merely clarify the text from the original French translation. Accordingly no new matter has been added.